

Pat the Dog* finds new homes in Spain and Germany!

Indie French distributor Superights announced today that Pat the Dog (78x7'), the cartoon comedy which successfully launched last year at Mip Junior, has been acquired by The Walt Disney Company and TV3 Catalunya in Spain and The Walt Disney Company in Germany, expanding the free TV exposure of the brand in Europe.

Produced by Superprod in Vanilla Seed's studio in Angouleme (France) and Italian company Animoka for Canal+ Family, Teletoon+ and RAI, the adaptation of the mobile game sensation had previously been sold to RTBF, VRT, TSR, Radio Canada, Discovery Latin America, Turner EMEA & Asia Pacific and The Walt Disney Company in the US, covering over 180 territories. Season 2 is already in preparation.

Disney Channel in Spain premiered Pat el Perro on September 18th every week days at 8:20am, 3:30pm, 5:45pm, 8:35pm and 11am, 12:30 and 8pm during the weekend. TV3 Catalunya is airing the series on Super 3 every week days at 7:45pm under the title Pat, el gos.

Disney Channel in Germany will launch the series Pat der Hund in 2018 after Turner's first pay TV window.

"We are extremely proud to expand Pat the Dog's presence in Europe with these key broadcasters. We will have soon other great news to announce as season 2 is already in preparation and licensing & merchandising looks very promising." says Nathalie Pinguet, Deputy General Manager of Superights.
